

CURRICULUM VITAE

Asatur Hovsepyan, born in 10 May 1970, town Abovyan, Armenia.

1985 finished high school №2 of Abovyan;

1986 finished technical school №50, car-repairer toolmaker's course;

1986-1988 worked as a mechanic in a vehicle park in the Armenian State Enterprise of Gas;

1988-1990 served in Soviet Army;

1990-1996 took a six year graduate program in Pediatric Faculty of Yerevan State Medical University;

1996-1999 took a three year residency program in the Chair of Clinical Ophthalmology of the same university;

1999-2002 worked as senior laboratory assistant in the same Chair and combined this work with job as a part-time duty ophthalmic surgeon at S.Malayan Ophthalmologic Center's (MOC) Injury Department from 2001 till today;

From 2003 joined to AECF team as a Mobile Eye Hospital's co-ordinator then director.

About my family:

- Father – Nickolay Hovsepyan – graduated engineer, inventor; now working as an engraver in bottle-plant “Saranist” in Abovyan;
- Mother – former teacher;
- Sisters – Anahit and Hasmik, married.
- Wife – Susanna, an ophthalmic nurse in Excimer-laser Department of MOC;
- Daughters – Victoria born in 2003 & Hranoush born in 2006.